

20 March 1953

Mr. Joseph H. Freehill
Director
Office of Price Stabilization
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Freehill:

Receipt is acknowledged of your letter dated 3 March 1953 to the Director of Central Intelligence requesting priority consideration in connection with the relocation of personnel in the emergency agencies whose present employment is soon to be terminated.

We sincerely agree with you as to the importance of re-employing competent and deserving personnel who have served with the Federal Government and wish to assure you of our cooperation.

We have interviewed a number of candidates from your Agency and some of them are already on duty with us.

Very truly yours,

/s/
Walter Reid Wolf
Deputy Director
